Welcome to this House of God—Talk to God before Mass Listen to God during Mass—Talk to others after Mass

Jesus was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place.

The eleven Apostles are truly the most blessed men to have ever lived; because they saw the cross of Jesus and his resurrection and ascension into heaven. On this Holy Solemnity we are invited by God's grace to precisely dig deeply this lifting up of Jesus.

After Jesus' resurrection, we are given glimpses of the risen life which Jesus has won for us. This feast day points to our own destiny and future, it provides a glimpse into life beyond the grave.

Our hope is that we may go where Christ has preceded us. This hope is grounded in Jesus' own words; 'And I when I am lifted up, will draw all people to myself'.

'Lord, give us the courage to preach the 'Good News' – death is not the end but the beginning of our eternal life in your kingdom'. Come Lord Jesus, come again to earth, return as our God and King and establish the kingdom of your Son forever. Amen.
