Today's Mass Readings

Acts 5:12-16, Ps 117,
Apocalypse 1:9-13,
17-19, John 20:19-31

"PEACE BE WITH YOU. AS THE FATHER SENT ME, SO AM I SENDING YOU".

What is so remarkable about Thomas is not that he doubted, but that he did not allow his doubts to overwhelm the impulse of faith to which the Spirit was leading him. After seeing Jesus' wounds, Thomas made a great proclamation "My Lord and my God". His belief in the crucified and now risen Christ is the highest profession of faith uttered by any of the witnesses in John's Gospel, and brings the Gospel to its triumphant climax. In the conclusion of this Gospel, John makes an almost unbelievable statement when he says "There were many other things that Jesus did; if all were written down, the world itself, I suppose, would not hold all the books that would have to be written", What a powerful observation. 'Lord, help me to know your risen presence in my life today. Cast out all of my fears and lead me to a deeper faith in you'.
