‘PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN’.

What must I do to inherit eternal life? We, just like the lawyer in the gospel must have asked ourselves this same question often. Jesus said ‘What is written in the law?’. The lawyer replied that we should love the Lord our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength and with all our mind, and your neighbour as our self. Jesus said that he was right and replied ‘Do this and life is yours’. The man then questioned Jesus saying ‘Who is my neighbour?’. Jesus told the parable that a man was making his way from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked and beaten up and had everything he owned stolen from him. The attackers left him half dead. A priest and a Levite walked by on the other side of the road and did nothing to help him. Then there happened to pass by a Samaritan, who was disliked by the other two. He saw the man, came to his aid, bandaged his wounds and took him to an inn. He paid for this person’s lodgings and said to the innkeeper, ‘If it costs you any more, I shall return in a few days and will repay you’. Jesus said ‘Which of these people proved a neighbour to the injured man?’ The lawyer replied ‘The one who took pity on him’. Jesus said ‘Go and do the same yourself’.

DEACON TERRY

ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE TO HARVINGTON HALL

SILVER JUBILEE THANKSGIVING

I would like to thank all those who involved (Choir, Altar Servers, Flower Ladies & others) to prepare the beautiful Mass of Thanksgiving on last Friday evening and those who prepared the Parish Centre for the celebration after the Mass. My thanks also to those who brought cakes and so many other deserts. Thank you very much for your gifts and cards received with many kind messages. I was humbled and surprised to receive the Papal Blessing from Pope Francis, something I will truly treasure. I was quite overwhelmed and deeply touched by all the expressions of thanks received. Finally, a word from my family to express their thanks for the kind welcome received here at Holy Name last weekend. With the promise of my daily prayer, blessings and peace as always. Br Andrew, SCJ

FIRST THANKSGIVING MASS

Ryan Service is studying for the Archdiocese of Birmingham at the English College in Rome. His grandparents were in the Holy Name parish for many years until 1990 (Maureen and Anthony Leighton). He will be ordained soon for the Archdiocese of Birmingham and his first Mass of thanksgiving will be on Sunday 21st July at 11.30 am at St Mary of the Angels, Whetstone Lane, Aldridge. He is extending his invitation should any parishioners wish to attend.

HOLY NAME CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL

At the present time, there are some places available for Reception Class 2019 . If you wish to apply for a place for your child at Holy Name Catholic Primary School please contact Sandwell Admissions on 0121 569 6765. If you would like to visit the school then please request this through the school office: 0121 357 3216.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA - SEA SUNDAY

Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. Today's second collection is for Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea), the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you.

OUR LADY'S ROSARY GROUP - HOLY CROSS CHURCH, WHITWICK

Our Lady's Rosary Group, Holy Cross Church, Whitwick extends a very warm invitation to join them in their 33rd Rosary Rally to pray for World Peace and Young People on Sunday 1st September 2019. The Rosary Rally will commence with Concelebrated Mass at 2.00pm. The principal Celebrant will be Fr. Colin Patey, Retired Priest of Nottingham Diocese. For more details please see the poster on the Church notice board.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY GROUP

Next weekend the Children's Liturgy will be closed and it will re-open on Sunday 8th September 2019. Please encourage your children and grand children to be part of this Liturgy group.
