A VERY WARM WELCOME TO FR KURIAKOSE THADATHIL

We would like to welcome Fr Kuriakose Thadathil as our new Parish Priest. He is seconded to the Archdiocese of Birmingham by Cardinal Baselios Cleemis Head and Father of the Syro - Malankara Church, to be the Ecclestical Co-Ordinator for the Syro Malankara faithful in UK.

Archbishop Bernard Longley has appointed him to care for our Parish as he is a Diocesan Priest.

Father Kuriakose, we hope that you will find us a friendly and welcoming community who have grown together in care and support for each other, especially over the last two years, as we have learnt to deal with the problems caused by the pandemic.

Today's first Reading speaks of the Servant of the Lord. We are all in our own way his servants, working to bring God's love to our community here.

We offer you our help and support in your Mission here and we trust that the parish will continue to grow in love and care for all who come to this church.

The Parish Office Team.

NEW SCHOOL YEAR

As we start a new school year we wish everyone in our Parish School a happy and healthy year of learning and friendship.

THANK YOU - MISSION SUNDAY

We have received a letter from mission thanking us for the £229 donation we sent them. Thank you for your support of the church around the world.

THANK YOU - FOOD BANK

We have also received a letter from the Food bank thanking us for our continued support for those most in need in our community. Your donation may be left in the basket in the porch at the presbytery from where they are collected every week. Thank you for your help.

THANK YOU FROM BR. ANDREW

My thanks for the very kind and generous leaving gifts received from the Parish Community of Holy Name. Also my thanks for the cards, gifts, and expression of thanks received and shared over the last few weeks. As mentioned last weekend it has been a huge honour to have served you, the Parish of Holy Name.

I arrived safely here in Corpus Christi, Nottingham just in time for the Vigil Mass for the Epiphany, guided by the star! Know that you will be held in my thoughts and prayers with much thanksgiving in my heart.
